

Dr Zilika Jain

Zilika Jain is a registered homoeopathic physician practising in Brisbane, Australia. She completed her graduation in Bachelors of Homeopathic Medicine & Surgery (BHMS) from India. Continuing her learning experience, she pursued a two-year Diploma in Nutrition and Health Education from Delhi, India, to help provide a holistic approach to her patients.

Zilika has had vast clinical experience by working in various hospital settings and clinics under a wide range of doctors. In her formative years, she managed dozens of patients locally and globally on a daily basis. With over five years of experience in the Indian subcontinent, she moved to Brisbane, Australia, with the dream of spreading knowledge and remedial powers of homoeopathy in Australia. It gives her immense joy to provide health freedom to every individual and she ardently works towards that with her patients.
