

Uday Nagarkar

Uday Nagarkar is a passionate Melbourne-based homoeopath who works tirelessly in order to support his clients worldwide. While completing his bachelor's degree in homoeopathy, he pursued his passion in tutoring and teaching. In order to improve his clinic prescribing skills, he worked at various clinical camps in rural areas of India.

After moving to Melbourne, he initially started seeing clients a few hours every week while working full-time in the education industry. Currently, he manages a full-time workload of clients that are based across different parts of Australia and South East Asia.
